Penthouse Maui offers luxury in Kihei

The Penthouse Maui offers luxury residential comforts and beachfront relaxation in Kihei, inspiring respite-seekers to book an unparalleled Hawaii vacation experience. Designed for groups of up to 10 guests, the Penthouse Maui has a spacious layout, elegantly appointed rooms and upscale amenities.

Located in the heart of southwest Maui, the sprawling 2,824-square-foot penthouse is meticulously appointed with coastal decor, comfortably posh furnishings and commanding ocean views that provide the ideal backdrop for an island getaway. It's a hotel alternative, a fun place to celebrate with family or friends. "We want our guests to have a memorable experience by anticipating their needs," says Dave Gilbert, owner of The Penthouse Maui. "During their entire stay, they will have access to a concierge who will assist them with special arrangements such as hiring a private chef, booking exclusive excursions and even handling grocery shopping so they can simply relax and enjoy Maui."

The stylish accommodations include three master bedrooms — all featuring full en suite bathrooms.

In addition, a full Jack and Jill bathroom is the connector to a queen bedroom and private study set up with a queen-size sofa-sleeper. Ample gathering spaces are sophisticated yet remain warm and inviting.

A gourmet chef's kitchen is outfitted with full size, state-of-the-art appliances conducive to entertaining. Guests can dine at a glass-top table that seats up to 10 while enjoying a cool island breeze and ocean views. The prized section of the property is the 60-foot-long ocean-facing lanai that offers unobstructed views from every angle. It's the perfect place to witness dramatic sunsets or even breaching whales in the winter. Adding more bling are the high-end appliances, furniture and closets stocked with gear and equipment to enjoy the beach. The Penthouse Maui offers easy access to beach activities, events and shops. It is also in close proximity to the many critically acclaimed restaurants and casual eateries.
